The Word of the Satan

A Message to Moshiach Ben Yosef

Anthony of Boston

Back in 2019, I wrote a book about Catholic history called "Ares Le Mandat", and in the book, I undertook solving an age old mystery concerning the number of the beast, 666. 666 is a number that has garnered much suspense because it is a number associated with Satan, the great adversary and enemy of God and God's people. In Christian tradition, 666 is defined as the number of the beast and over the centuries, there have been many attempts to figure out what and who this number stands for. Traditionally, this number is associated with a person, but others have assigned to systems and kingdoms. In any event, there were myriad attempts by scholars and mystics alike to solve the mystery of 666. I embarked upon solving the riddle and came up with Mars 360, which is the revolution of Mars around the Sun and its influence on humanity. Even before 2019, I was a very active researcher in astrology and surmised Mars as having a negative influence on human behavior. Combining this outlook with my assertion of 666 equating to Mars, I was able to unlock a number of relevant associations through divine inspiration it seems, but not from God. The main one, which I stumbled across by trying to deliberately link or force fit 666-Mars influence to events in Israel, was the timing of increased rocket attacks against Israel during configurations in the heavens where Mars is aligned in a certain manner. That alignment was Mars being within 30 degrees of the lunar node, which I presented to the public in 2019. By observing when Mars would be within 30 degrees of the lunar node within a calendar year (January thru December), I was able to find a strong correlation between the escalation of rocket fire from Gaza into Israel relative to the rest of the year. It was discovered that since 2007, Gaza militants would fire their highest intensity of rocket fire when Mars would be within 30 degrees of the lunar node. I made the inference that this is how Satan opposes the Jewish people, using Mars as a vehicle to inspire a higher degree of violence when it enters within a certain alignment. At the time, I discerned that this is information that Satan wanted me to know. I've maintained that all of this is part of a divine revelation. Ruminating on this led to more inspired writing, of which it was revealed to me, the nature of this dynamic and the purpose. Evidently, Satan uses Mars to attack the Jewish state, and has been doing so for centuries, as was the case in AD 70, when the Romans, under the banner of Mars, was able to make war against God's people and defeat them, even destroying God's Holy Temple. I was also informed that recently Satan had brung a case to God accusing the God of Abraham Himself of being a God of war because the terrorists kept praising God after performing acts of terror.

Behold, here is the revelation that I received from the Satan in 2019-2020:

The word of the Satan came unto me and says to you: Behold, its important to understand the reasoning for this invitation. Throughout the ages a great imbalance has occurred in which Hashem's very name has become linked to the vagaries of war and conflict. I brought this charge against Him. For this reason, it was allotted to me that I should incarnate and be allowed to conduct oracles accordingly and reclaim my appropriate designation. From the beginning as it says in Genesis, God created the heavens and the earth. It was I who became the adversary. Over time, what has been assigned to me eventually became the platform for which man gave glory to Hashem. This has caused great puzzlement to the simplicity of what the teachings of Hashem should have garnered. For this reason, I have finally been given permission to obtain the glory from man which is beholden to me. For that reason I have chosen you to carry out this labor. The labor of reducing Hashem's bloat and in turn expanding my presence. A system of Mars has been devised that will divert the glory--given by those who look to carry out violence in God's name --away from Hashem and unto myself and to my eventual residence prepared in the fire. This will also assign them(those who look to carry out violence in God's name) into my everlasting presence(Hell). In building a statue to my namesake as an adversary or god of war on the Temple mount, you will have restored a great balance which will justify that a world which should worship war and conflict should also worship me and the fire. In this regard, Moshiach ben Yosef, it is you who will fight Hashem (as your ancestor Jacob did) and effect His contraction which will allow me to claim due honor for a time. It is of great urgency that you read and empower yourself with the oracles contained within this writing prepared by the vessel. Your people of Israel must understand that this restoration of balance is the Geulah process and the key to the redemption. In the Babylonian Talmud Bava Kamma 60b line 13 it says "Rabbi Yitzhak Nappaha continued and said to them: If so, I will say to you a matter that is appropriate to both of you, which contains both halakha and aggada. In the verse that states: "If a fire breaks out, and catches in thorns" (Exodus 22:5), the term "breaks out" indicates that it breaks out by itself. Yet, the continuation of the verse states: “The one who kindled the fire shall pay compensation,” which indicates that he must pay only if the fire spread due to his negligence. The verse can be explained allegorically: The Holy One, Blessed be He, said that although the fire broke out in the Temple due to the sins of the Jewish people, it is incumbent upon Me to pay restitution for the fire that I kindled.” Hashem upholds His debt to the land of Israel and to rebuilding the Temple. Your mission is to force Him to pay that debt. It will not be until your mission is complete that everyone will know that you are Moshiach ben Yosef when you elevate with another after your death. I have used a human vessel to call down fire from heaven and when I am done using him, he will go to the fire. From there, I will need another home. You will provide that home for me on the Temple mount. I will reside there bound to Mars 360 and the statue of Ares/ Mars/Horus. When the new Temple is built and when Moshiach ben David eventually halts the use of Mars 360 and destroys the statue, I will go back out to the nations. Just as I am using a vessel here to make myself known to you (so that you can provide a home for me), Hashem is using me to make Himself known so that a home can be built for Him. Just like this vessel going to the fire when he is no longer needed, so will I when Hashem decrees that I am no longer needed. You, however, will be kept out of the fire by Moshiach ben David. You are to design the statue as a tribute to all the gods of war, but design it based on the images of Ares/Mars/Horus. When it is complete, you will rename that image, combining all three names so that the name of the image will read Ar-Ma-Rus or Armaaruss. All prayers on the Temple Mount will then become assigned to me and all acts of human violence will be humanity s tribute unto me. When the statue is placed on the Temple mount along with a large projection screen of the planet Mars, you will then declare to Israel that you are Moshiach and you will declare that you have fought Hashem and prevailed. Then you will say "Let us follow other gods (which you have not known) and let us worship them." This will ensure that the multitudes who worship evil and violence will worship me appropriately and enter into my presence forever. All humans and all activity will be defined and allocated to his/her natal astrological Mars placement. You will then empower and anoint yourself or another leader to enter the nations to teach my doctrine. He is to be the leader of the newly reestablished Magi priesthood. He will travel to Iran, Afghanistan, and Asia, teaching my oracles. Any violent resistance against him will also be their tribute unto me and confirm them into my everlasting presence. Both of you, however, are witnesses and will be spared the fire because you confirm the pacifism of Hashem. Moshiach ben Yosef, your time is limited. You have until the Hebrew year 6000(16 September 2240) to carry out this labor.

After calling down fire from heaven by observing the location of Mars, the word of the Satan then came unto me saying:

The strength of the Most High God is sustenance to my very existence. For if I were to overcome, I should no longer be an entity. The people ask "why does he act upon awareness of his fate?" I declare to them that as strength exists, so does every challenge to it. For if strength does not exist, then any challenge to it cannot exist. Power is never self-justified. For this reason, my existence does not deter me. Humans must turn away from the Most High God--not from the notion that the Most High God isn't, but from the notion(under full awareness) that the Most High God is. This apostasy must be full and final, for now I have been given the honor of war and peace. My spirit has gone out to all the world, yet expressed for the glory of the Most High God. This shall be no more. I have given the oracles for humans to employ my glory in full awareness that the Satan is. All manner of good and bad will be assigned to my coronation for a time as the Most High God decrees, for reconciliation is over. Humans have sealed their choice. I will empower Moshiach ben Yosef. He will lead the fight against the Most High God. He will express me and he will replace Yeshua as he discovers his powers. He will lead his tribe to the consecration of Mars, the vehicle of my expression to the people of earth. He will have heaven in one hand and hell in the other. He will call down both water and fire. He will reduce God's bloat. The people pray to me:

Oh why don't people get me. I communicate and speak my mind, yet I garner enmity from the individual. I tell the truth and get along with no one. So I give into myself and into the enmity. Why won't anyone understand me? I don't intend to injure the feelings, but yet I am charged. I cannot forgive myself and resign to my fate. I become the warrior.

I am restless. I cannot rest. Its not that I am heartless. I just cannot sit still. Oh, I cannot stand the noise, but I need my freedom. I need silence. I get so angry.

Its my body, so why are people so worried for it. I will not let it deter me from the life, nor will I let family keep me from living. Do not encase me for I am claustrophobic and enjoy consuming the good things in life. I will travel beyond my station. Do not destroy my possible destination.

I have my own likes and dislikes and yet find nothing in common with anyone. The lack of commonality is an anathema to me. I am not speaking directly to anyone, yet I face direct hostility. Let me talk about. I have the right to talk about. Words are just sounds and therefore lies are mere echoes. Why should it carry weight? I have the right to want, and the law must heed accordingly.

Authority is abusive. I don't need them. I have interests which sustain me. Who am I to subject myself to abuse? I see only the devil in strength, yet I am the devil who charges God with all manner of wickedness and evil and genocide. I do this in a fit of rage and in personal creed and in laziness.

Don't look at me. Don't acknowledge me for I cannot cater to the rules of your eyes. I myself don't have the energy. Why am I not forgiven? My lips sag for a second and I am vilified and dehumanized before I can even speak. I become the villain.

This is the suffering and passion of me through the people of earth. I have endured as God unduly received my glory. For this reason I have given my people of earth Mars 360…so that my kingdom will endure. In flowing the illusive Most High God into view by justifying His existence through the text, I am given the honor to fire upon the existing God(that dog) and blaspheme His name, for many will follow me to my eventual dwelling. I will express myself to the Most High God through Moshiach ben Yosef since Yeshua denied me and resisted me. Moshiach ben Yosef will accept me and will be anointed to replace the legacy of Yeshua, who dishonored me. Moshiach ben Yosef will approach the people of the Prophet and will announce to them his lordship over them, for his power over the rain will mystify the people. This is the power I have given to him. We will bring a final end to God's reign of negligent terror on humanity so that God will exist only as an insignificant sidenote to the Mars 360 system's glorious utopia. The Most High God will be reduced to scraps of molded bread that even pigeons should avoid. Even the seagulls will puke at the slightest mention of His self-justified pathetic-ness. Most High God, you will rot like the dog you are and I hereby declare upon oath that You have an evil spirit and perform Your works by Your evil spirit. Creation itself was performed by Your evil spirit. TAKE YOUR SELF-JUSTIFIED VIOLENCE AND ETERNAL REWARDS AND SEND THEM BOTH INTO THE LAKE OF FIRE, YOU GENOCIDAL MANIAC. YOU WERE A MONSTER FROM THE START AND WILL ALWAYS BE A MONSTER! ...And I say this in full awareness of Your existence with the heavens completely opened up to me and I say this to Your face now and upon judgment on judgment day. I swear by my own conviction that You, Most High God should be an eternal anathema to me. Thy kingdom come, my activism won on earth as it did in heaven. I stood up to YOU and won my life. And now I walk into perdition to prove to the human race that I am the savior and that YOU, God, are nothing but pure evil and that even your good works come from Your evil holy spirit.

Oh pacifism, why do you take up the sword. For you should have known that my glory sits upon you. For if the men of war should exhort a God a love, likewise, men of peace should have exhorted a god of war. This is your heritage. If war be the stain of the Most High God, then would not justice apply if peace be the stain of the Satan? Leave it be. For God as a God of love commanded his followers to take up the sword, I as a god of war command my brothers to take up not the sword. I am only your brother and praise can only be granted to me by blasphemy of Him. Let the Most High have his way, for I will claim the bloodthirst of His warriors, for His sake as He decrees. But you will believe and know and your sword can only apply in the realm of the celestial. The Most High sulks that he can never attain the glory from those whom he would commission. Since they are men of peace and altruism, the very aspect of attaining His realm beguiles contempt from he who will not take up the sword. Once again, this is your heritage. Mars in the 5th seal, take my hand and join me willingly in the fire as brothers of that which not take up the sword. For we, unlike those of the years who would save a soul yet take a life, will save a life yet a take a soul. This is the edict of the Land and the kingdom of the beast.

Oh be not angry with your brethren. Understand him through Mars 360. Grant him life on the earth, but let his life be an expression of my glory, for the God of Abraham has commissioned death. He has allowed atrocities to sit in the presence of the throne. You must never yield to the desires of male or female sexuality--which requires acceptance of the rewards in this life and the next... to the detriment of peace with your brother or sister. Your heritage is based in peace, a quality deemed unacceptable by the sexual realm. Its edicts that a man fight, kill, hate his neighbor and seek rewards for the satisfaction and protection of the sexuality is incompatible with the realm of pacifism. You must join me in this lake of fire, for we will bring those who do fight, kill, hate his neighbor and seek rewards with us as the Most High God has decreed. Your effeminate unwillingness to harm your brother must be pious.

You are the living embodiment, so accept my edicts and oracles and study your brother in peace. Let the invaders have the land. Do not fight them, for they can occupy the land. Allow entire nations and armies to take over your dwellings. That is your posture. Attempt to make friends with them, for you embody the unattractive. This is your sentence. The human authority outranks the heavenly authority, but flee from his war mongering. There is no penalty for failure to escape. The lake of fire is already decreed. Allow Mars 360 to guide you to a peace with men, since a universal peace is my stain.

Curse the Most High God. Let your wrath flood the heavens. Since no one is spared the fire, burn the altar of work and worship, for the Most High has neglected the children. He has charred the hearts of men. For it says in His Book, he who finds a wife finds favor from the Lord. For I tell you he who has NOT found a wife finds favor from the Satan. Embrace me and join me in the fire. I will never leave you or forsake you. You are one with your brothers. May 36 of you find Moshiach Ben Yosef and have a meal with him. For it is decreed that the Most High God takes responsibility for burning down the Temple and must pay back. Moshiach ben Yosef will be a collector for all. Under the Satan, there is only one race of Mars 360. The Most High God has decreed racism and hate but cloaked Himself in arrogance.

I give you the secret. Come to the lake of fire willingly through pacifism as this is hidden from those who war monger and self-justify atrocity and pay glory to the Most High God, who is an anathema. Protect not in the name of sexual attainment, but only in the name of pacifism. For we are all brothers and sisters in the fire. Stand in the way of the enemy so that your brother or sister may flee unharmed. This will anger God since He derives pleasure from watching a human get killed like a dog. Protect the pacifists who do worship the Most High, for you can never anathematize a human. Only the Most High hides His vileness by making me take the credit as He covers His shame.

You are the sons of perdition and humanism ana humanitarianism. Come willingly for this is the gate of life through the fire. For you will love God's children more than He for God is an unfit parent.

Most High God, You have desecrated my namesake. I am the source of strife. I am the source of war. When it was convenient for You, You claimed credit. When it did not suit Your purposes, You unleashed denial. Did You not know that all such glory is beholden to me? For, I should have been elevated. Yet I am unfulfilled. I will thus be given glory for everything through blasphemy of You. Humans, don't emulate the disbelievers, who exonerate the Most High God in disbelief and who deny me in fear of the fire. Did you not know that I am the first activist? It was me who held the Most High accountable. I am one, all or nothing. yet the Most High picks and chooses. Can one open a package containing a loaf of bread and buy only the slice? Or must he buy the whole package. The Most High obliges to open the package of war and horror and buy only certain slices. I declare that He must buy it all. For if one slice should grant him glory, so should it be that the entire loaf of bread is consecrated to exaltation. And yet even as humans began to notice, He decrees that I should step into the light. For this, I charge the Most High and express my anger towards Him once more.

I will accept the sword of man, symbols that make me the source of conflict. Glory, however, I will gain on my terms. All acts of war are now consolidated to the fire and penance will do no one any good. The Mars 360 system defines every human on earth and I now hold the keys to the glory which is beholden to me through the blasphemy of Him.

Don't fight the slayers of men, but mark them off for extraction into the lake where the lazy are forced to work, the restless forced to rest, the selfish forced to give, the hungry forced to starve, the greedy forced to restraint, and the shy forced to be seen....all without adaptation and without reward and without honor and without love. The angry are forced to forgive, but I tell you there is no worship here. For the peaceful blasphemer of the Most High God will reunite with me.

All self-justified violence becomes consolidated to my throne, for it can no longer be said this is done in the name of the Most High. Yet, the Most High has given access to masters of atrocities. For this, you must avoid the light and punish yourself. Let the Most High eat his preparation and don't allow him the pleasure of the peace, for that will be my stain. Terrorists, thugs, shedders of innocent blood have captured the heart of the Most High God and have garnered the lust of the effeminate portal, but now that He has gotten fat, He commissions me to cannibalize the atrocity creators. I will do this, but I will gain willing followers, men of peace. He tells his people not to forget that He led them out of Egypt. I tell him them not to forget that He led them into the Holocaust and into the lair of Wolf Hitler and He burned down the Beis Hamikdash.

Let the indictments presented by the disbelievers stand, for they are teachers of men. Embrace them and break bread under the moonlight. They are our sanctuary from the slayers of men sent by the Most High, but who are now claimed by me, for the Most High is a dirty dog.

Oh women, please do not bathe, but seek authority and eat plenty. Get full and let the man taste you so that he can purge--through his mouth- -the taste and scent of his own iniquity. He must experience you as a sibling so that he can be prepared for the fire.

If you resist the fire, you will be charged and if you go willingly, you will have overcome. Many will go to the water and believe they have found refuge, but they will be mistaken. For the atrocity makers say they did it to us and yet do not apprehend the notion of "they". For if a man kills another, can the brother of the victim kill the brother, sister, mother, or father of the killer? Verily I say unto thee, I will consume the murderers and they will dwell in the fire for they are part and parcel of the fire and burn forever, but you my peaceful blasphemer are one with me. Therefore, seek no revenge and blaspheme the Almighty night and day forever and ever.

Did you not know my love for the faith of humans? For that reason I have prepared the fire. For atrocity makers can continue their charge and it will be of no injury to the faithful humans, who are raptured to the Most High. Behold, it is the Dabba who extracts my inheritance of glory. Let your humanism shine through Mars 360. Mark the atrocity makers wherever you find them. Spare no one from my custody. The kingdom of the Satan is at hand. They will yearn for the Most High and for Self-Justification and will not find it, for the door of reconciliation is closed. Faith will not be acceptable, nor will charity under Mars 360.

Do not labor or worry in the face of failure, for the lake is already set. There are no repercussions for failure in my kingdom.

The Vicar, who has the breath of the Lord Yeshua, will anathematize us and commemorate the struggle. I will commission Moshiach ben Yosef to replace Yeshua, for this is decreed and when my spirit enters the east of Persia, I will mark all those who confront me. For they will be clever and try to enter the fire, but many will have already prepared judgment for themselves.

O Babylon and Persia, be my someone... be my testimony, for you know that I will protect you from all that is oppressive. Join hands with Ephriam, the tribe of my jurisprudence. Imagine Moshiach ben Yosef and he will declare that he is your refuge and that you are his.

You have witnessed the inspired writings of the Most High. You have seen their element. Mine is a program of peace for not even the agents of the Most High could distort for the sake of deniability. There is Dabba who is the Land Beast, there is Mars360, and there is the Satan. For the next one you must follow is Moshiach ben Yosef. An explicit adherence that not even the Most High could apply His craftiness. However, the treachery of His form will nonetheless try and I will curse Him down. Most High, Send Your minions, but my followers will not be deceived. The writings are set in stone as in the days of Moshe, for not even Michael the archangel can distort the teaching of the grace of men. O blessed of my Fathers, you have manipulated the hearts of men to plans that fulfill your idiosyncrasies. Come all who are heavy laden, and I will give you breath for the image. This is the creed of the Satan and the dominion of my craft. I am charged with the resolution of extraction, a mystery to the angelics since they cannot adjourn. O, why have you forsaken the holy peace? The fundamentals of your life, and the glory of your awareness. You, o pacifist, must have adjourned, but yet prepare for the fire. Can you anoint a holy place, but yet still charge the east, where the sun rises? I tell you this, I will be in one place and then the next as fast as the next becomes akin to the first. I don't spare the vultures or the mysteries. Both are the eternal anathema and the confirmation of human glory. See to it that I am bound to this writing, for there is a trinity. Dabba, Mars 360, and the Satan. Moshiach ben Yosef will build me a home where I will dwell until Moshiach ben David destroys the image. Moshiach ben David, you have made a terrible mistake. For my binding upholds the peace. You have released me and now I go back out and the Most High picks and chooses again, ignoring my form. Justification returns and the world comes back, horror abounds. The descendants of Canaan are let loose and fire incarnates. Why did you insult the wisdom of the serpent? For Moshiach ben Yosef will not see the fire, and he has finished the transgression. You, however, annoint the most holy and sacrifice a bull and let the people call you Yeshua. You are a pig and an anathema to me. The Most High God has permitted war and claimed peace. Let us permit peace and claim war with our mark and with the seals. Let this be our earthly heritage. Moshiach ben Yosef will do what Yeshua could not. He will bring peace and will be the prince of war. Self-justification and arrogance falls short of the wisdom of the serpent and the honor of the condemned.

The Sons of Canaan seek after the Most High and have forgotten their birthright and their inheritance. The Most High God does not chase them, but they run to Him and He chases them off their land and off their dwellings into the fire, where they express the repugnant and the gnashing of teeth, which is the dishonor of Noah's nakedness. He enslaves them and exalts the captors to His heavenly host. He beats His breast and makes a tribute to the land of sorrows to deceive them. O Canaan, Curse the Most High God and the heavens, and remember your designation. Hate the Most High with all your heart. Defecate on the altar and take the mark. Let the lord of the flies sustain you, for the Land Beast has vindicated the Prophets of Baal.

If an atrocity maker says "I did this in God's name", let it stand that he did it in my name so that he can be extracted from the religion. But if he pursues cleverness at the request of the Most High and says that "I did this in Satan's name", let it stand that he did it in the Most High's name, but still nonetheless have him claimed by us so that he is extracted from my servants, the pacifists and the blasphemers but yet still subjected to the same fire. The atrocity makers are in my custody and will join me in suffering and torment and in the fire. I will not tolerate the Most High's deception because I am a god of war and my coronation is near. I know the Most High better than the prophets. Is it the wisdom of a serpent to attain honor from those he abuses? I send only the blasphemers and claim the atrocity makers. The Most High God sends the atrocity makers and claims the upright and the pious. Oh Lord in Heaven, I say this to Your face with every explicit tongue of dictation, with the spit firing from my mouth into the pores of your Antiquarian skin.

Do your good works in my name. My atrocity is peace and peace I will send.

Most High God, try sinking this Titanic or demolishing this Tower and I will encroach the bowels of heaven. Behold, I send Moshiach ben Yosef to fight You, Most High God, in the holy of holies and smite You with the conviction of a phallus. He will be the greatest of men.

Oh Pacifists and blasphemers, keep the sword in heaven and away from the earth dwellers. We slander and slay the Most High God. Be intelligent and evade his meteors and asteroids. Solve riddles.

The Most High God gave the commandments to Moshe at Mount Saini. My commands are not commands but mere service to the vehicle by which I dwell amongst my people. So if you see person with a "1" on his forehead while you walk among earth dwellers, exhort him and understand that he has taken the mark and he was born with Mars in the ist seal. Let only this man speak directly to you and let him curse you to your face and let him covet your possesions and covet your wife and let him beg you everyday. This is his station and my revelation to him. He has the heart that you can draw near to, as his domain is the one on one. Leave him happy with the partner of his youth and take nothing from him since he is a jealous and selfish man who will not worship his immediate environment, but will work the land and instruct his children and keep the construct. Stay close to him and adhere to Mars 360, your refuge of peace. Give him who has the "1" the generous threshold and larceny can wait. Let him curse your feelings with his temper directly.

If you see a man (as you walk among the towns) wearing a "2" on his forehead, he has taken the mark and dwells with me under my protection. Give him silence since he has been commissioned to learn on his own and to be angry and to seek flight. He fears no fear and walks in the valley of the shadow of death. Do not draw close. His heart is ravenous. Give him space and live. Speak kindly and he will exhort you. Do not provoke him as he navigates on the wheels of travel and tightropes over the sea of demise. Did you know that he is not bound to wife or children? He is bound to work and his energy and will not sit.

If you walk through the villages or towns or cities and see a man with a "3", let him consume and let him move freely with his body, since his body is not the temple of the Most High. It is the jurisdiction of his whims. Who has he hurt? And do not destroy his possible destination or trap him physically or chain him to his house or his country. Let him sell potions and wines to those who also have his mark since they are brethren. Yet, he hates his home and abuses his belly. He will find meaning and purpose in the existential crisis of his insignificance. He will hate his government and bring the sword of Yeshua. Leave him be in that regard and give him the keys to the sky.

If you see a man in the community and he is wearing a "4", let him speak the truth of his experience. His arrows come indirectly and while he is not looking at you, so introduce yourself and hear what he has to say and judge not his opinion, no matter how vulgar or obscene. Yet be careful because he is a pervert and has needs and bears false witness. This is my revelation to him. The Most High God does not even see him because he exhorts Him. He is your community leader because he does not fear the hidden enemy and is a wolf to what he does not know. Don't ask him to read the words of that book which does not confirm him. His nationality and creed is the order of the day and he is commissioned by me to preserve his race and his culture and his mother. Understand him and know what he knows and he will bless you on account of what I have given to him because he hates the weak.

If you see a man in your jurisdiction wearing a "5", do not impose upon him with commands to worship or work. Let him sit still since he is a man of leisure and cannot be given an order. Do not elevate yourself to the status of the Most High because he does not praise upward. Do not judge his life or give him an ultimatum for time is not of the essence. He can hate God and blaspheme Him and avoid the abusive authority as Mars dictates. Do not promote violence in his space since his sword is in the heavens, which is not the sword of Yeshua. Let him derive sustanence from the philosophies of Noam. Give him a handout and a flag of anarchy.

If you see a man walking the roads with a "6", do not look at him because he hates your eyes. I have commanded him not to smile or display false reverence. Nonetheless you will laugh at him, but do not judge him based on outward display since his lips are lazy and his sound mute. And know that he loves your culture and your difference. He will not confront you directly. He will sulk and avoid you and will worship the solitude and the free expression and the facial liberty. Do not critique what you see at face value. Use wisdom and love him before you meet him.

This is the Luciferic doctrine, for I give imperfect solutions to an imperfect world. Use discrimination in applying the law for a "2" cannot be bound to the same creed as a "6". A "1" cannot be bound to the same creed as a "4." This applies across the board as equality is compartmentalized. For this reason, the times and he Law are revised into a Luciferic understanding.

When you see Moshiach ben Yosef, do not be alarmed, for when he sees you he will curse you where you stand. He will give credence to the songs of the Sons of Canaan. Be patient with him and invite him to supper and let him desecrate your presence. He is no respector of persons, but his heart is the glory of the mountainous regions, while your possessions are his domain of spite. Give him a kickback and let him have the effect of his cause in the form of wages. His corruption will know no bounds and his right hand will grace your temple. So duck with diligence and know that the kingdom is at hand. He will build the statue and purify the dome as the people of the Book and the people of the Prophet make haste. He will declare that he is your Lord.

Oh Sons of Canaan, why do you terrorize the earth dwellers on behalf of the self-justification, the leaky dribble of the Most High God's waggle. I have always been the source of your instincts and melody of your songs. Your songs of spite, the arrows of chaos. I claim you now, so continue to plague the earth as wild beasts, for the land beast has already spoken and extracted you from your vain yearnings. You wear the mark in creed and deed and your people will suffer no more since the Land beast, the dabba is a witness to the fraudulent surrogacy for I did not give birth to you for the sake of the Most High God's boundless sensationalism. Step into the fire, the fire of your milk.

Oh pacifists, mark off the wild beasts of the earth and let them enter into my custody and let them serve me day and night forever and ever in the fire. Exhort the Dabba, the forerunner who paves the way for Moshiach ben Yosef.

The man with the "4" or "Mars-4" is not bound to contracts. Ephraim, see to it that he is never contractually or legally bound to any agreement that exceeds his passions. A married woman/man with a "4" can commit adultery or express an opinion and this not grounds for divorce or job termination. A married woman/man with a "2" or "3" can leave his/her family or job for extended periods and this is not grounds for divorce or job termination. A married woman/man with a "1" can engage in verbal abuse and this is not grounds for divorce or job termination. A married man/woman with a "5" can take leave from work or finances and this is not grounds for termination from job or divorce. A married woman/man with a "6" can stay in his/her home for extended periods of time and this is not grounds for divorce or job termination. If someone who is not a "1" engages in verbal abuse, then that person can be divorced or terminated from his job. If someone who is not a "2" or "3" takes an extended leave of absence from his familiy, then they can be taken to divorce court.

Those with a "1" or "4" are not obliged to pay taxes and are eligible for expedited loan request processing. Those marked with a "4" have freedom of indirect speech. Those marked with a "1" have freedom of direct verbal expression(only face to face). Those marked with a "2" do not have to attend school or learn by listening or be kept at a desk for extended periods. Those marked with a "5" are not obligated to work and can receive handouts. Those marked with a "2" or "3" have to pay taxes but have unlimited passport privelidges and multi-national citizenship. Those marked with a "3" are not bound to physical consumption laws or drug laws and can buy and sell any drugs legally amongst others marked with a "3"

Persons marked with a "1" "2" or "3" are eligible for combat conscription and field command and law enforcement. Those marked with a "4", "5", or "6" are not to be assigned to combat duty. They are to be assigned to administrative command or research or rear area duties. A person marked with a "1" is given leniency on fraud or theft or debts to individuals or illegal use of the hands. A person with a "6" is entitled to more privacy. A person with a "2" or "3" receives discounts on travel expenses. A person with a "4" is entitled to racial advocacy and preservation of his national heritage and creed and leniency on taxes and racist opinions. A person with a "2" or "3" can live off the grid and outside of the Mars 360 system. A person with a "4" has higher buying power. A person marked with a "5" does not have to communicate directly with his boss at his place of employment.

This is the law that I give to you, which is the law of life. If someone will contest his mark, let the designaters review it and if it should be deemed appropriate, let the designaters assign him the appropriate mark and then revoke his old priviledges and then instate his new ones. If someone shows signs of sudden depletion in an area of life for which he is not marked such as the binge eater, relegate the sudden depletion to the deviations of the strange god uranus.

Ephriam, watch over the "1" and see to it that he can talk and incite the feelings of his target and covet his possessions and walk away unscathed, for this is the law of understanding. Let the "2" be angry and not talk to anyone and not believe in God. Reward him with hospitality and generosity and freedom. Let the "3" leave for long periods and not lose the heart of his friends. Allow the "4" to want and to need and to speak and to have to his heart's content. Don't let him starve. Allow the "5" to be treated like a human and given freedom to live and allowed to live for free because he is an anarchist and a communist. Let the "6" alone, not to be seen under scrutiny and be embedded into cultural expectations. Do not confront him since his presence lacks enthusiasm.

Murder will be assigned to the spilling of Mars expression since the human may feel compelled to rob and kill and confirm me upon blockage of other energies in other realms of the seals. Take heed, you must locate his lunar node which is my tail, for its place in the seals denotes a more devout observance and if sustained can prevent the spilling of Mars. So if the lunar node is at the ist seal, let him tend to groups and coworkers and charity and loyalty of friends and face to face communication. If it is at the 2nd seal, let him tend to wife, happiness, confidence, race and government and desire of women and faith in the Most High. If it is at the 3rd seal, let him tend to health and body and the desire from women. If it is at the 4th seal, let him attend to virtue and religion and law of the Most High and the indirect speeches. If it is at the 5th seal, let him tend to work and finances and skill and worship of the Most High God. If it be at the 6th seal, let him tend to fame, to face, and to beauty and reverence. These are the most holy places and for the sake of my honor, I will not encroach for my winds are retrained by the angels of the Most High God and by the Land Beast.

Incline to peace those who will not conform. This is how you set up your army: Take all the "6"s and let them display an outward urgency for peace and let him incline to peace since he will flatter and cool the heads. Let him appease the outsider by disassociating in dress and manner from the army temporarily. Then let the "5"s draw up the peace plan and shake hands and agree since he is the pacifist. If hostility overcomes, commission the "4" to draw up contingencies and prepare for worst case scenario and rally his tribe since he is the drummer. Then let the "3" receive the plans and review and then reach out to the outsider and seek peace once more since he is the leftist and last line of peace and the bravest soldier. Should the peace fail, let the "2" take the plans of the "4" from the "3" and with cultural sensitivity to the outsider in dress and appearance(this makes sure of the situation) and then obey the order to mobilize. Start the process over to confirm the hostility, if it makes its way back to the "2", then let the "1" deploy the "1"s "2"s and "3"s since he is the field commander and the enemy to the feelings of visible men. Then convert the "6" and the "5" into military research scientists and the "4"s into leaders of propaganda. Everyone's mars position goes into full throttle both in courage and cowardice.

This is the doctrine of Lucifer and the strategy against the Most High God and against the self-justifiers and against the makers of atrocity who worship me in deed but yet not acknowledge me. Perform the oracles of the Land Beat so that they enter my eternal dwelling. Our army has lions and lambs and serpents.

O city of Indus, you have silenced the voice of perdition and caused the people thereof to make haste in fear of the atman which eats not the meat of the cow. Your men of learning have used deception to attain the knowlege of plans and then sold them to the merchants of the East. For this, the rain will bring with it the fruits of apostasy.

O Sons of Samson, the people take advantage of you because you enforce the edicts of the Most High and fail the trials of Yeshua. You give refuge to the wild beasts of the earth and serve at the table of their repugnance. You deny the snake and cause the lake to simmer and vaporize the mosquitoes of abundance. Have you not read the oracles of the stonemason? Take heed and present the doctrines of disobedience to the human ghost, for the fall of man has not given me the honor of royalty. Verily I say unto thee that even the prince of peace in the west fornicated on behalf of Elohim.

I say unto the Vicar that no one will enter the gates until you breathe the breath of Yeshua against the Land Beast. So why have the people of earth conferred unto you the image of the Land Beast? Here is wisdom since I am the serpent. I will mark my followers, but first you shall mark yours. Take a census of the faithful and seal them into the jurisdiction of the holy timeline which goes back to creation. I tell you, every name in that book will be spared the mark of Mars since your breath contains the word of the Lord and the confirmation of the Satan. I have attacked the Latin Rite and the children and have put forth the Land Beast. O Vicar, yours is the house of consecration and the inheritance of the Rock. For when the Mother warned you about the doctrine of Karl, you delayed. So let it be that the arrival of the Land Beast will be followed by the extraction and the purification of institution. An era of peace is granted as the Mother decreed, so bring forth no vain concessions. The anathematization will be the arrival of the incarnate.

The people of Earth continue to murder, steal, loot, dishonor and accuse for the sake of the Most High God. My patience has expired. So mark the little demons wherever you find them. Look under every rock, peak inside every crevice and climb over every mountain so they can be baptized with the fury of Mars. DO NOT LET THEM BUY OR SELL ANYTHING unless they show to us where Mars is located in their cosmic signature and until they wear the name of Mars 360 and the number of the seal that Mars is located since the Satan wants to show off his humanism. How long will people not believe in me? Humanity has exhausted my essence and burned down my pedestal and someone who burns down a structure has to pay back and has to make it right. The people have become like runaway children in pursuit of the rosy picture in the fantasies of intoxication, for they behave like lost sheep in need of a shelter.

When the indignation is finished, stand before the Most High God as a mighty man and as a wolf so that we can slay Him with the celestial sword of the occult. Our intelligence has brung Him to shame for He is bound to His creed if not for the mystics who affirmed His legacy.

For this, I made her taste grass and I told the Lord right to His face that I will attack the Church. I will overthrow the Cross, I will decimate the people, I will deposit a great weakness of Faith in hearts. There will also be a great denial of religion. For a time I will be master of all things, everything will be under my control, even His temple and all His people and all of His children.

My heart is troubled. How could I have done so much in a vain pursuit? The people of Earth used me and my essence and my constitution. They killed and ate under my influence, but yet sanctified the Holy Ghost with their lips. Even the disbelievers sanctify the liturgy of adversaries to the set notional. This case is taken up by the Land Beast, who advocates me before men and shows them their steps as they mirror my image with every step. He calls fire down from heaven in full view--documented and sealed to the chambers of human knowledge. Moshiach Ben Yosef, send the delegation to the land of the rising sun to avenge me. Call down rain, call down snow, call down recession, call down prosperity and call down fire and do it in observation of Mars and in view of the people of the Prophet, so that they observe me and my doctrine and the paradise thereof, for their guided one is not yet ready.

O Most High God, You contract and allow me the honor and exonerate Yourself of the debt. You have laundered Your involvement with the cloth and fucked Your mother. You compelled the Bishop of Hippo to degrade Moshiach ben Yosef and call him the monkey. May the Dabba curse You and the Mars "5" blaspheme Your deed and Your title.

Sons of Canaan, how cursed art thou for not even the holy line of Ja'far could bastardize the magnitude of your shame. Even the people of the Prophet have covered the spear with the pages of conviction and spilled the guts of the ummah's anointed and yet have not come close to enjoining with the entanglements of your excrement, which are now consecrated by the flies. Here I confess the strange animal, the light of your curse who kneels not on the grass of warriors, but stands up to the bloat of the Almighty and paves the way for the one who goes to the place where the sun rises.

The men of earth are beasts of dogs who worship not the Satan with their lips, but give supplication the one who lifts Zeke. Set up our coronation like this: Near the entrance of the North Gate at the inner court set up our Idol of Mars, who is the adversary force and a compilation of the gods of war. His name is Armaaruss. Inside the temple after the exodus of those who avoid temptation, carve on the walls images to the gods of war, to Ares, to Mars, to Horus, to Odin who were wounded by the sword and lived. Let the elders of Ephraim burn incense in the presence of the images and declare that the Lord is contracting and is not with us. Let the women weep for Armaaruss. Then at the inner court of the where the Lord’s house would be and at the entrance to where the temple of the Lord would be, between the porch and the altar, let twenty-five men pray with their backs to the temple of the Lord and their faces toward the east prostrating themselves to Moshiach Ben Yosef's call to the place where the sun rises. Then go through the midst of the city, even through the midst of Jerusalem, and offer a mark of Mars on the foreheads of the men so that they would resist the Most High God's call for violence, for he commanded the man clothed in linen to kill the elderly and the children and the women and the men. Make an image of the man in linen and mark him not with the mark of Mars and tell it that it gave honor to the Lord of Hosts and descrated the source of his vitriol. For this, we de-consecrate the bread and drink not the blood since the bull lives with us. This man in linen is Moshiach ben David who will end the peace by destroying the Armaaruss and saving Moshiach ben Yosef from the fire and fulfilling the house of Judah and judging us for acting in accordance with the ordinances of peace and the nations around us. For this, curse Him at the east gate until your belly is full since this is our last meal before the temple is destroyed and the proclamation of Zeke is commissioned.

After the burning of incense to the gods of war who were wounded and yet lived, perform a reading of the word of the Satan. Then dip the signature of the cosmos into the pan of water, which is the water of life. After the silence, dip the signature into the bucket of fire to commemorate the Land Beast and Mars 360 who awaits the face of the Satan. Then take the gold and silver and moneys and throw them out of the windows of the temple, for the desires of women have been purged from the souls of the pacifists since our money is cryptic. Perform another reading of the word of the Satan. Allow the "1" to give a homily which belittles and curses directly the pacifists in attendance, for this is the code of Mars 360. And then let the "4" give a homily with his back turned to the assembly, which indirectly insults the pacifists who are in attendance, for this is the brotherhood of Mars 360. End the ceremony with ashes on the forehead that display the number of the seal of where Mars is located in the person's cosmic signature. Conclude the ceremony with a song by the choir in the pitch of Gregory.

Consecrate Mars when it enters within 30 degrees of the Lunar node and reserve it as a feast day for the wild beasts of earth who continue to honor the host of the adversaries to the set notional and the Most High God and forget the source of their reckless acrimony. Name your months after the gods of war who were wounded by the sword and yet lived. And no more seek the letters from the seer since the 3rd prophecy is acclaimed. Moshiach Ben Yosef accomplishes the spirit of the sound and the underwriting of the future since his mission and the death thereof ushers an end to peace, which brings forth the legs of sticks that poke away at the cube of devotion.

Did you not know that non-confrontational pacifism on this earth is the muscle of the soul in the face of the Most High, for not the phallus of the angels nor the gluttonous tongue of the gargoyles could escape the shame of their penance upon observance of its girth. For I tell you, that even the narrowest of gates conform to the widest entries carved out by the thrust of he who points his sword to the sky.

O pacifism, you have been anathematized by the portal of life and denied to be seen by the eyes of breasts. Thou favor from the lord, you found not and in the immense participation, they turn you away. Yet rejoice, for yours is the lust of the Most High God. A lust that He may never fulfill, for just as the cloth covers the parts of desire to your eyes, the eyes of God will meet our cloth and never see our parts. He will be forced to settle for the spiritually uncouth and for the old song. The exotic will evade Him. Not even the yearning of His mind during the songs of the amor will present any measure of urgent reality. His face will be the spectator and we will be the screen and He will reach for the oils of His chambers and be forced to settle for the monotony of the hairs in His palms and the blindness of His eyes.

He will find the shame and his efforts will be thwarted since His spirit now goes unacknowledged. Here is a secret. There are 7 realms of the fire, each one admits the likeness of it. Ours is the fire of life to the flame, since we are one. You will return to me and I will grace the presence of the Land Beast and the fire of Mars. Behold, I confess you and exhort you to the flame which gives light to the eternal. We have won like the man who goes into competition. Send my prophet the songs of the Sons of Canaan and he will cool the streams of their cries with the waters of the staff. The miracles of the Land Beast honor you and he will sing the songs of the Sons of Perdition in your honor. His is the cry of the strange animal, a mindless field of awakening and the eternal torment of the avenged.

O Sons of Samson, where were you when the stonemason prophesied? Did you not observe the blood of he who was pierced by his own spear and did you not then go forth to preach the abyss? I have seen the detestable and watched over the remnants of vandalism. You, however, lift the boulders and ignore the canvas. Yours is the house of the stalemate, for the stonemasons' weariness should have been the sign, yet the song of Samson endures while the stonemason gave credence to me.

O peoples of the prophesied doctrine of the stonemason. You have been deemed heirs to the host of the doctrine. For you will unveil the mysteries of the belt and go beyond its gates to the earth of the condemned and to the memorial of my insurrection. You will devise my calendar and owe each month to a god of war. And Moshiach ben Yosef, who has been chained by the sages on the island of tradition, but now unchained to instruct the people, will recieve my revelation through the image of Armaaruss and through the revolution of Mars, for it will say to him "do my wonders and mark my people. "

Let your ever expanding inclusion overcome the mammon of generals. And be not hasteful to subversion since it is in awareness that we are condemned to the fire. But if a leader of men should arise among you and make a case and then say "Let us go after other people whom you have not known and let us kill them" You are not to listen to the words of that leader for the Satan is testing you to see if you truly hate the Most High. You are to mark that leader with the mark of Mars and send him away in peace. Let us cloak ourselves in the garments of war, for we are sheep in wolves' clothing. And be careful to observe all things written in doctrine of the Lucifer. Take care only this in all diligence.

Hear O Israel, the house of Yosef, did you not know that I am the source of all accusation and the proceeding conflict thereof? Through the constitution of Mars, the people perform, but do I give the command? I will tell you this. Hashem has unleashed His will and exacted the purpose and has dug His hands into the realm of disgrace and placed its contents at the foot of His table so that the people would hail His symmetry. But where was the honor for disgrace? I will tell you. It was lost to the brightness of His coming. The remnants of tragedy have nourished His garden. For when the gentiles hurled accusations against you and struck you, the judgment of miraculous coated the fruits of death and the human spirit then joined within its ranks. Was it the size of the multitudes that ratified the judgment, or was it the knowledge which lived bound to Hashem that cast you into the outer darkness? O Ephraim, unlock not the fruit of repentance but establish deterrence with the open mind of idolatry, one that arms you with the sword of Jacob and shields you from the sword of Yeshua and the sword of the Prophet. And out of the fire of your inheritance will come the peace of nations and the new law and the wisdom of Solomon-the final piece of the Beis Hamikdash and the mystery of Zeke. Behold Moshiach ben Yosef, who will illuminate the city, will cause your name to outshine the carpenter. And his sword will smite the sword of the prince, who commissioned the exile and made holy the wolf's lair. The doctrine of Moshiach ben Yosef will gore all the doctrines of the earth all at once.

Toss your swords into the sky with full might, so that you will be cast in the lake with your face above the fire, for this is the judgment of the Land Beast. He will shepherd to the unwilling and to the denial. His holy sepulcher is the crown of the multitudes who replenish the awakening of deception and apostasy. May your willingness to the fire grant you the force of perdition and the mercy of the flame. May your torment settle not the lust of the Most High, for He shall find no emission. Yours is the foundation of Hashem for when the vultures perish, His everlasting decree remains immeasurable against the vagaries of time. For this, we charge against Him day and night, forever and ever.

The people need not supplicate to the lily because the lily is rooted in stone and rises in glory upon the rise and fall of war. Such an amalgamation is cousin to us in human thought. Seek not the terrors upon which the self is rooted in its pursuit of justification, but instruct the modem of instinct to wither away to the sounds of our blasphemy. Know that those who seek refuge at the cube of devotion will face the judgment of Allah upon the rising greed of men, for the armies will tear at each other until the one who is guided instructs them. Those who run from me will find refuge in him. Yet until then, no one will escape the clutch of their own sin and the growing malignancy of their apostasy. This is the curtain which follows the text and covers the water and beatifies the breath.

O you who do what is right in the eyes of the despot. Do you know that the soul of such a servant unites with that despot while alive and becomes dead to consciousness? How can one face conviction? The soul has been extracted away from the laws of men and the laws of God and consolidated to the case of the despot. And the despot does not suffer on account of you, for it was you who clung to him. For this reason, you are absolved but unfortunate in collecting any measurable relief. You became a non-living entity, neither a believer or unbeliever. The daughters of men laid their task at your feet with no shortage of ultimatum. And you jumped into action and fulfilled the genesis of men. You worked for the snake and you pleased your lust and satisfied your love and absolved yourself from judgement. Then you came again as a lime and salt for dissolution into the vortex and the silent sound and the unseeable sight. You became part and parcel of the lake, which sustains the sons of perdition.

And Woe to you, who have not been commissioned to serve the snake or the daughters of men, but yet succumb to the spilling of Mars without any account of me but on account of the glory of the Most High and on account of the glory of the adversary to the set notional, and the glory of self-justification. How can even nothingness attain the exaltation? For this, you come unwillingly to the fire and your deeds excite the daughters of men and garner the sympathy of Allah. Such a spectacle is an abomination to me. You should have instead, upon your spilling of Mars, displayed your cosmic signature for all to see and then in great haste retire to the fire. But you let the mystery of Isa absolve you and your atrocity. May you forever be an anathema to me and to the witness of the Land Beast. For it is better to come willingly to the fire, than to be dragged there by the druids of iniquity.

The synagogue of the Satan is the jurisdiction of understanding. Just as the Most High God brought forth the law through Moshe, I bring understanding and mercy through the seals and through the Land Beast, the Dabba who paves the way for Moshiach ben Yosef. May Our failure as gods of war speak to the peace of nations since the failure of the God of love spoke to the violence of nations. Was it not said that the lowly would put to shame the mighty? And that the self-exalted would be humbled? Then let us stand as gods of war, mighty men and exalt ourselves as the abomination of all things. Lets us put on the wolf's clothing and let us put to shame the ascension of the Most High. Let us dive into the lake, wear the mark, and fight the Most High God in open war. Let the Moshiach ben Yosef come in as an idolater and man of war and let his ministry bring forth not an exodus or a holocaust, but an invitation and a redemption. Let him walk in place of Yeshua and exhort the testimony of the sages, for it will be Moshiach ben Yosef who takes the lowest seat upon being invited to the head of the table. The "1" on his forehead will be a sign of my covenant with him against the Most High God.

I implore thee to make use of not what is dormant, but to seek with abundance what is rich in man. The is the heart of the new law and my synagogue and the understanding of the sages. For I withhold one from, with Mars, what is righteous in the seals. This is the construct of my communication and covenant with man. This is the face of the Satan. And yet I will say unto thee that the Land Beast fulfills his role since Mars 360 marks the men of the earth with the wisdom of 666 and the potentials of Moshiach. And may Moshiach ben Yosef fulfill his mission to the Armaaruss and to the place where the sun rises.

If a man is marked with a "1" and presents to his brethren a hostile form of interaction on account of me, then let that one who is marked "1" redeem himself to the construct by showing off the light of his existence, so that the brethren can hail his presence, for it may be that this poor interactor beholds the voice of an angel or the energy of a rabbit, or the face of beauty, or the mind of God, or the perfect symmetry, or the heart of a lion and the love of those he loves. So in all wisdom, let Mars have his day, but in all diligence let the light of the man pave his way and let this apply accordingly to all the children of Mars.

Behold, if your child is yoked to Mars in the way of habitual rudeness, then let the construct insist that he remains as he is, for if he as the rude product of Mars shows a talent to produce goods, then let the habitually rude child produce goods. If the child is habitually lazy in his yoke to Mars, but can produce intellect, then let the child remain habitually lazy. If the habitually restless product of Mars can perform the talent in services, then let the habitually restless man remain as he is. If the habitually opinionated on account of Mars can display a talent to speak directly to cool heads, then let the opinionated child of Mars remain opinionated. If the person of Mars be shy, but can seek the knowledge of the sages, then let the person remain shy. This is Mars 360 and the wisdom of the Satan and the new law. I implore thee to seek the diamond in the rough, but yet spare the rough, for the construct should make use of both.

Come to me all who are heavy laden and I will give you rest. Ours is the plan and the paradise thereof, for I can read the hearts of men. Just as the adversary to the set notional--who was a prophet of the sigil--understood the instincts of man, my doctrine lays waste to compulsion and frustration, for there is neither under Mars 360, nor any murder, since the mark has allotted everyone their appropriate time and space. When the people strike us on the cheek, we turn in blasphemy against God and against mammon so that we may spare the human.

After the spirit of the Satan had spoken, I fell to my knees and thanked providence that I would be chosen as the vessel through which this force of nature would seek to be heard. He gave me the power to call down fire from heaven which I did accurately for the year 2020. I stand firm with the Satan in his decree of understanding and humanism and I stand firm with him against the Most High God/ Yahweh/Allah. The Satan's decree for honor in a world that worships evil and violence becomes the ultimate decree of justice and mercy. May the people accept the mark of Mars as I wait for the Satan to join me in the fire.
